

ISES Chapter Bio

Name: Joanne Hulme

Occupation: Owner, Creative Concepts

Experience:

Joanne Hulme celebrates her 40th year in the design industry in 2009, having designed her first wedding after 2 years of college, at the age of 19 years old. Many hundreds of weddings later, (and a mountain of Mitzvahs) she has expanded into the writing and teaching arena as well. A multiple Gala nominee at Special Event's Gala Awards, as well as a double winner of Special Event international tabletop competition, her unique approach as a designer and producer makes many of her events one of a kind! She strives to always being a leader in the field of creativity, and has recently started to restore and redesign muscle cars, created a Doo Whop Wedding Division, and is working on a special order of one of a kind home accessories to be sold on the Mail Line of Philadelphia.

Joanne Hulme is proud to have been one of the first 75 persons from around the world to obtain her CSEP certification and win her first tabletop competition at Special Event in 2000 within a 3 day time span. Frequently seen in Special Event Magazine, her designs are unique and push creativity to great heights. As an event producer, she brings that same one of a kind twists to her events, small or large!

ISES Experience:

An ISES board member for many years, she returns to the board excited about the many steps that ISES has taken, in her leave. Joanne can be found at Special event 2009 teaching two classes in creativity and design.
