

David Fischette

President & Chief Visionary

Known for his experience and passion, David has become a creative force in the event industry. With his innovative combination of multimedia and live elements, he has exploded the term "Experiential" to the next level, through his trademarked Synchronology™ technology. David is a nationally recognized speaker and is part of the global CEO Summit as well as the SEARCH Foundation, affecting positive change worldwide through the event & meeting industries. He believes his success throughout the past 23 years can be attributed to building strong relationships with his clients and striving to exceed their expectations with each project. David's roll as the visionary of GO West Events & Multimedia has contributed to his personal success as the 2004 Spotlight Award winner for Event Producer of the Year. David has lead his team of creative individuals to achieve a multitude of prestigious awards in the Event and Multimedia industries, having most recently been named to Event Marketer Magazine's Top 100 It List for Event Agencies, Special Events Magazine's Top 50 Event Companies for 2008, and proudly taking home the 2008 Gala Award for Best Theatrical Production. Several other industry awards and recognitions include the 2006 Spotlight Award for Event Company of the Year, the 2005 Spotlight Award for Technical Producer of the Year, 9 Telly Awards, and 9 Videographer Awards. David and his team have truly proven themselves to be the "Architects of Your Imagination!"
